Maneuvers of Leaders of Major Parties Today Summarized.

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—The Democratic high command plunged today into final preparations for the party's national convention in Philadelphia next week, while Republican turned to the task of raising money for the Landon-Knox drive.

The Giant Democratic pow-wow in the Quaker City beginning June 23 was the subject of a conference yesterday between President Roosevelt and National Chairman James A. Farley. Roosevelt, declining to comment about the new Republican platform, told reporters that he has no plans to leave Washington until a week from Saturday when he will go to Philadelphia to accept renomination in a big outdoor fête.

Topeka, Kas., June 17.—(AP)—The red-haired, aggressive political general, here for a strategy conference with Landon, Knox and other party leaders, also announced additional appointments of staff workers before leaving today to New York late today to launch a "war chest" drive for the campaign.

A youthful executive committee with seven new faces was appointed yesterday in the conference, where Landon and Knox met for the first time since their nomination in Cleveland last week.

Hamilton said his assistants at Chicago, the main headquarters for the campaign, will be Harrison E. Spangler, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, national committeeman; Arthur M. Curtis, Springfield, Missouri, national committeeman; and Charleton McVeagh, Armonk, N. Y.

The chairman said most of the staff of the present party headquarters at Washington would be moved to Chicago.

Young Republicans

The Young Republicans' activities will be directed by J. Kenneth Bradley, Bridgeport, Conn., national chairman of the Young Republicans, from the Chicago office.

Hamilton said W. B. Ball of New York would continue as head of the party's finance committee. New members formed more than half of the executive committee that continued campaign-charting conferences with the nominees for president and vice president.

Seven new members took their places on the executive committee, with seven reappointed, besides the new chairman, John D. M. Hamilton, and the new treasurer, C. B. Goodspeed, Chicago.

Landon headed into another huddle with the committee without announcing details of the opening session yesterday.

Knox to Stay in Topeka

Knox planned to remain with Landon several days more. Hamilton's scheduled call for a trip to New York by plane this afternoon to talk about raising money—a topic he said figured prominently in the parley yesterday.

In making public the personnel of the reorganized committee, Hamilton commented on its youth, saying the group was "the youngest personnel we've ever had, by far."

Say "the average is way under the ordinary," Hamilton referred to his own age, 44, and that of the youngest member, Robert P. Burroughs of Manchester, N. H., 36.

Two Traded Jobs

In the reorganization, Hamilton traded jobs with Henry P. Fletcher, the retiring national chairman, who took over the Landon leader's former post as counsel for the committee.

Besides Hamilton, Goodspeed and Fletcher, the other committee officers are vice chairmen—a man and a woman from the east and a man and a woman from the west: Ralph E. Williams, Oregon; J. Henry Roraback, Connecticut; Mrs. John E. Hillman, Colorado; and Mrs. Worthington Scranton, Pennsylvania.

The seven new members of the executive committee are Burroughs, Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., North Attleboro, Mass., who will manage eastern headquarters in New York; J. Will Taylor, Knoxville, Tenn.; Mrs. Horace Sayre, Ardmore, Okla.; Mrs. John W. Vreth, St. Joseph, Mo.; Ezra Whitten, Couer D'Alene, Idaho; and Earl Warren, Oakland, Calif.

Members returned to the executive group are Charles D. Hilles, New York; Harrison E. Spangler, Cedar Rapids, Ia.; R. B. Creager, Brownsville, Tex.; Mrs. Bertha Baur, Chicago; Mrs. Paul Fitz-Simmons, Newport, R. I.; Walter S. Hallanan, Charleston, W. Va.; and George Ball, Muncie, Ind.

The newspaper Paris-Midi said the countess, who now lives in London, bought the jewels yesterday from Ganna Walska, Polish opera singer and former wife of Harold F. McCormick, Chicago millionaire.

The collection included a diadem, double necklace, earrings and bracelets. They were originally given to the Countess of Castiglione by Napoleon III, the newspaper declared.

Conferees Agree

On $276,000,000

Deficiency Bill

Washington, June 17.—(AP)—Final agreement was reached by congressional conferees today on a $276,000,000 deficiency bill covering next year's relief appropriations, except on two items on which the House must vote.

The bill now goes back to the House for ballots on these Senate amendments: One authorizes $300,000,000 for a public works program and another authorizing a new study of the Florida ship canal project.

With the conference agreement, congressional leaders were confident the relief bill would not delay adjournment of Congress. Hopes for quelling this week hung entirely on the tax bill.

HEADQUARTERS OF GOP DRIVE TO BE CHICAGO

Moved From Washington; Chairman Hamilton To Be In Charge

Topeka, Kas., June 17.—(AP)—John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, announced today he will take charge of the party's headquarters at Chicago for the forthcoming presidential campaign of Gov. Alf M. Landon and his running mate, Col. Frank Knox.

Two Naval Fliers

Burned to Death

Norfolk, Va., June 17.—(AP)—Lieutenant Charles E. Mallory, 27, of Bethesda, Md., and Radioman W. C. Gray of Wharton, Texas, were burned to death today when their plane crashed from 100 feet shortly after taking off from the naval air station. The men and the plane were attached to the heavy cruiser Indianapolis.

The plane apparently stalled. It burst into flames upon striking and the men were dead before aid could reach them. They had been engaged in starting tests.

Last Roll Call

DUCAN U. FLETCHER

United States Senator from Florida, who dropped dead at his home in Washington this morning of heart disease.

He was 77 years old and had served in the senate since March 4, 1909.

His office announced that the Senator dropped dead at his home. No details were given immediately.

Fletcher was chairman of the important banking and currency committee and a member of the committees on commerce, military affairs, and printing.

Senator Borah of Idaho is the oldest member of the senate in point of service, having started his career in 1907.

Senator Smith of South Carolina came to the senate with Fletcher. They outranked all other Democrats in point of service.

It was Florida's second loss in the senate in little more than a month. Park Trammell died May 8 after a service since 1917.

Trammell was succeeded by Scott M. Loftin, former president of the American Bar Association.

THREE WORKMEN

SUFFERED HURTS

DURING MORNING

Ira Nehring, 815 Sixth street, this city and Harold Ilgen of Freeport, employed by the Rocho Construction Company of Freeport in excavating the sewer ditch on East River street, were injured shortly after 8 o'clock this morning in an unusual accident when the bucket of the crane which is excavating the ditch struck a plank, near where Ilgen was standing, knocking him into the ditch.

In dropping, the bucket was reported to have struck Nehring's hand, mangleing the member.

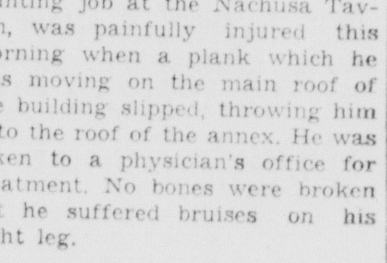

Both men were removed from the ditch and taken to the Katherine Shaw Betha hospital where their injuries were dressed. Nehring sustained the worst injuries and it was feared that he would have to suffer the amputation of a portion of his injured hand. Ilgen's injuries were of a minor nature, a cut on the head and bruised about the body.

Harry Rubel, employed on a painting job at the Nachusa Tavern, was painfully injured this morning when a plank which he was moving on the main roof of the building slipped, throwing him onto the roof of the annex. He was taken to a physician's office for treatment. No bones were broken but he suffered bruises on his right leg.

MURDERED MAN'S DAUGHTER VIEWS SUSPECT'S BODY

Believes Him Slayer Of Inventor-Sire Edison Aide

East Orange, N. J., June 17.—(AP)—Beatrice Moore viewed the body of Jean Philip Gebhardt in a Red Bank morgue today and authorities quoted her as saying the suicide victim "resembled in every respect" the tall, thin man who called to see her inventor-father, D. McFarlan Moore, nine hours before he was found slain.

William A. Wachenfeld, Essex county prosecutor, who received a report from detectives accompanying Miss Moore to Red Bank, said she was unable positively to identify Gebhardt from facial characteristics.

But he said she recognized the fancy band on the Panama hat found in Gebhardt's car; said the spectacles he wore were like those of the man who called to see her father Sunday night, and that the clothing was similar.

Her statements were accepted by the prosecutor as a partial solution to the mystery slaying of Moore, a former associate of Thomas A. Edison. The motive remained to be determined but authorities pointed to the fact that Gebhardt, an unemployed electrician interested in patents, fit into their early theory that the slayer was someone who might have had a grievance against Moore possible over rejected inventions.

Gebhardt shot himself near New Monmouth yesterday when an officer approached to question him.

Miss Moore's description of the Sunday visitor gave detectives the main clue in their search for the man who shot Moore twice as they stood in the rain outside his home early Monday.

AMENDED OLD

AGE PENSION

BILL PASSED

Springfield, Ill., June 17.—(AP)—The administration bill designed to secure Federal financial participation in the Illinois old age pension program today was passed by the House and sent to the Senate.

The vote was 105 to 2. Daniel A. Roberts of Chicago and Mrs. Lotie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove, Republicans, opposing the bill.

It complies with the ruling of Washington officials that Federal funds to match the maximum $15 monthly pension can be given only if the state is empowered to set minimum standards for county employees. The bill also eliminates the requirement that pension employees must be a resident of the county for five years.

In two weeks ago the bill got the two-thirds emergency House majority but was blocked on a Republican demand for verification of the roll call after a group of legislators had left the state house.

The amendments in the pension administrative system are one of the issues holding up adjournment of the special sessions.

KANKAKEE FIRE

AND POLICE OLD

AGE FUND SHORT

Kankakee, Ill., June 17.—(AP)—Disclosing a $4,400 shortage in the pension fund, Mayor Roy Taylor announced today that there was no money available to pay Kankakee's retired policemen and firemen and their widows.

Mayor Taylor, a Republican, made the disclosure after receiving a letter from R. E. Jackson, a Democrat, threatening suit against the city unless the pensions were paid. An investigation into the fund has been made, the mayor said. The shortage, he said, occurred before he took office.

A previously disclosed shortage of city funds resulted in the indictment of Francis L. Fister, former city clerk, on charges of embezzling $13,900. Fister was convicted and is now serving a 15-year sentence in the state penitentiary at Joliet.

No reference was made to a pension fund shortage at the time of his trial.

4,000 Newspapers in

Big Tire Sales Drive

The advertising columns of more than 4,000 newspapers throughout the country are lending impetus to the current nation-wide Goodyear Blue Ribbon campaign. Chester Barriage, local Goodyear dealer, disclosed today.

The Blue Ribbon campaign is designed to bring home forcefully to motorists the safety factors behind the purchase of new tires at the beginning of the touring season, as well as to emphasize the blue ribbon values offered throughout the entire Goodyear, Mr. Barriage explained.

"The Goodyear advertising schedule in newspapers for the month of May was ten per cent greater than the corresponding month a year ago and materially increased over April," he said.

"This barrage of timely advertising messages should bring about a decided increase in tire sales even for this peak selling season. Goodyear is using this means of impressing on car-owners the desirability of starting their summer travels with new tires. The Blue Ribbon aspect of the campaign brings out the fact that the Goodyear line offers a tire priced for almost every purse."

INVESTIGATION OF FLOGGING IS PENDING BY U. S.

U. S. Department of Justice To Enter Mysterious Angles

Memphis, Tenn., June 17.—(AP)—A United States department of justice investigation of the asserted flogging of a Presbyterian minister and a young woman in the eastern Arkansas sharecroppers' strike zone appeared in the making today.

At the same time, one of the alleged victims, the Rev. Claude Williams, 41, a Little Rock, Ark., preacher, urged prosecution of his men he said abducted and beat him and Miss Willie Sue Blagden with a brass-studded leather strap near Earle, Ark., Monday night.

The clergyman and Miss Blagden, a 29-year-old social worker, reported they had gone to Earle to investigate the rumored slaying of a Negro sharecropper.

An advice of counsel for the southern tenant farmers' union which is sponsoring the strike in three eastern Arkansas counties, they decided not to return to Earle to lodge formal complaints, pending a conference of attorneys Friday.

Atty. Gen. Investigates

In New York, Norman Thomas, the Socialist leader, who had appealed to President Roosevelt for an investigation of the asserted attack, announced receipt of a telegram from Marvin H. McIntyre, secretary to the president, stating the "attorney general has been asked to investigate immediately and report."

Thomas commented: "I hope this investigation will be more fruitful than others ordered by the president."

Mr. Williams and Miss Blagden expressed belief they could identify their alleged assailants, although not by name.

Roy Morelock, 35, a Parkin, Ark., sharecropper, reported yesterday he was the victim of another flogging near Earle Monday.

"DEAD MAN" FOUND.

Little Rock, Ark., June 17.—(AP)—Governor Futrell said today Sheriff Howard Curdin of Crittenden county had advised him he had found Frank Weems, Negro sharecropper reported by southern tenant farmer union officials to have died last week from a beating by men who broke up a union meeting.

The governor said Curdin advised him Weems is alive and that neither he nor his wife knew anything about reports that the 40-year-old Negro had been beaten fatally.

It was because of their desire to investigate the "death" of Weems that a Little Rock preacher and social worker were allegedly beaten near Earle, Ark., Monday night.

34-Page Will

A $50,000 bequest went to the Elizabeth McCormick memorial fund.

Chicago institutions McCormick had aided year by year also were remembered in his bulky, 34-page will. He left $10,000 each to the art institute, the Field museum of natural history, and the orchestral association of Chicago, and $15,000 to the Chicago historical society.

By provisions of the will, should his son Cyrus leave no heirs, the great bulk of the estate would go to Princeton and the Presbyterian church.

Twenty-seven domestic employees received from $500 to $3,000.

The letters testamentary were issued to John P. Wilson and Judson F. Stone. The latter is manager of the estate left by McCormick's famous father, Cyrus, whose invention of the reaper founded the family fortune.

OUR OWN FUNERALS

By Joseph Fort Newton

MARK Twain once had a queer dream that he went to his own funeral; not only as the corpse, but as the chief mourner, and also as the minister. He thought it fantastic, but it is a fact.

Each of us goes to his own funeral not once, but many times. We not only bury ourselves, but we read the service, and we are the grave-digger. It is one of the commonest facts of life.

Take the case of Robertson, one of the noblest preachers of his day. He wanted to be a soldier like his grandfather, his father, and his brothers. He dreamed of wearing the uniform.

At last, after much delay, he was admitted to the Third Dragon Guards; but at the same time he felt an irresistible call to enter the ministry. The struggle was terrible, but the pulpit won.

Having made the great decision, he took off his uniform, laid aside his sword, and entered the church. His first service, it is said, was conducted alone. It was a solemn, silent funeral service.

Quietly he buried the soldier in him, digging the grave and reading the ritual. But, before burying the soldier, he stripped him of his military virtues, and carried them into the pulpit.

There is a funeral, then, at the beginning of life, as well as at the end, and often between. Did not a great poet tell us that we rise on stepping stones of our dead selves to higher things?

And selves that are dead must be decently buried. Often it is an agonizing experience, too. How many dreams, plans, hopes, and loves lie buried in our hearts, like graves along the way.

But it can be the happiest of all experiences, as it was with St. Paul, who rejoiced that he had died with Christ, and wrote the obituary notice in a kind of anthem. Such a funeral is a festival!

That most of us need is a few first-class funerals inside of us, burying old fears, old sins, old grudges, old regrets. Ah, wrote a poet, for a man to arise in me so that the man I am may cease to be!

League Starts Drive on Public "Personnel Plank"

The National League of Women Voters, which last week submitted its ideas for a "Public Personnel" plank to the Republican platform drafters, starts its drive this week for favorable consideration of its plank by the Democratic platform committee in Philadelphia.

If the Democrats accept suggestions of the League of Women Voters, their platform would pledge "abolition of the spoils system and establishment of the merit system in federal, state, and local offices." In addition, the League will make specific recommendations for plank incorporation of "immediate legislation" to place first, second, and third class postmasters, deputy collectors of internal revenue and U. S. marshals under civil service, and also repeal of laws discriminatory of marital or economic status or residence against otherwise qualified people.

Formal opening of the League's headquarters in the Democratic convention city will be established Sunday, June 21st at the Bellevue Stratford Hotel, it was announced today in Washington by Miss Margaret M. Wells, League President. The Philadelphia League of Women Voters will act as headquarters hostess.

The National League will be represented in Philadelphia by a special delegation consisting of Mrs. LaRue Brown of Boston, active in the Democratic party, and a director of the National League, and Miss Florence Kirin, the League's legislative secretary in Washington. Conforming to its sixteen year old policy of selecting a party member to appear before each resolutions committee, Mrs. Brown is slated to present the League's ideas to the 1936 platform drafters. This is the third Democratic convention at which Mrs. Brown has presented the League's plank, her previous appearances being in 1924 in New York City and in 1928 at Houston.

Mrs. Brown is a prominent worker in public welfare activities of her state and city, and is especially qualified to speak on personal problems. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Massachusetts Training School conducted for delinquent children. She has been a member of the Massachusetts State Democratic Committee.

A special luncheon to honor prominent Democratic women and League members who are convention delegates will be given Monday, June 22 at the Hotel Ritz Carlton, Philadelphia. Mrs. Chas. Chandler is chairman of local arrangements. The speakers will include Mrs. LaRue Brown; Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller, Democratic national committeewoman for Pennsylvania, and member of convention arrangements committee; and Mrs. Henry Goddard Leach, former president, New York State League of Women Voters, and member of the New York State delegation to the convention.

Beautiful June Wedding Event of Day in Franklin

One of the most beautiful June weddings of this community took place at high noon today at the Methodist church in Franklin Grove, with the pastor, Rev. L. E. Winter, officiating at the impressive nuptial service.

At high noon Miss Annis Moore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore of Franklin Grove became the bride of Neil Mears, a brilliant young geneologist of Chicago, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives in the beautifully decorated church. It was a white wedding, the flowers gracing the church all being in white with a charming and natural background of greenery, ferns and palms.

Before the ceremony a string ensemble from Chicago, played a half hour's concert of nuptials airs.

There were eight bridesmaids and a maid of honor, all wearing white and carrying white flowers. The bridesmaids were Miss June Conlon, Miss Leona Phillips, Miss Mildred Leake of Amboy, Miss Viola Seebach, Naperville, Miss Helen Schaefer, St. Charles, Miss Helen Louise Senger, Mrs. Caroline Lease, Savanna, Miss Lorraine Crum, Elgin. They all wore white organdy, made with floor length full skirts, tight waists, white lace mitts and picture hats. They carried arm bouquets of white roses.

The maid of honor Miss Helen Ling wore a white triple sheer gown, over satin, a transparent hat, and carried roses. The dainty flower girl Wanda Spangler wore a ruffled white gown and scattered rose petals in the pathway of the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The best man was Mayor George L. Spangler.

Just before the impressive ceremony Rev. L. Z. Sittler, of Antioch

Lace Dress Is Easy to Make

The girl who's been longing for a lace dress may have this one for the making, and it's surprising how easily the lace stitches go. Attractive as the frock is in the photograph, its cobwebby loveliness must be seen to be appreciated. In dainty shades it is suitable for the dressiest of summer parties. In black or dark colors it has unusual elegance. Complete directions for making the cape and dress will be found in the new issue of the WORKBASKET.

The quilt pattern in this issue is "Trip Around the World," so get out your scrapbag and use up those small pieces. On the hot iron transfer which accompanies the WORKBASKET, you will receive an appropriate refreshment set in gay strawberry design. There will be a breakfast cloth and napkin set in butterflies and apple blossoms, and an attractive pillow slip as well. Number C909, Make It Yourself WORKBASKET—Home and Needlecraft for Pleasure and Profit, brings all these items. Or order C90912 and receive the WORKBASKET each month for a year with new and different designs in each issue.

C909 is 15 cents; C90912 is $1.00. Order by number, send stamps or money order. Address your order to Make It Yourself Pattern Bureau, Dixon Evening Telegraph, Box 166, KANSAS CITY, MO. Be sure to give name and complete address.

a former pastor of the church, sang sweetly, "At Dawning" and "Because."

There were eight ushers at the wedding as follows:

John Bellezza, Dallas Stultz, Neil Fox, Harold Zoeller, Lowell Trotter, Luther Durkes, Wilbur Mong, Claude Lease.

The bride was a vision of youth and beauty in her wedding gown of white satin, and long veil, held to her head with orange blossoms. She carried gardenias and sweet peas, and arm bouquet.

After the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the church for 125 guests, and light refreshments were served.

Afterwards the happy pair eluding their friends left on a honeymoon of the national parks and will be at home the latter part of July in Chicago, where they are followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends.

Last evening the members of the wedding party, numbering about 25, were entertained at a Dixon room, after which they returned to Franklin Grove for rehearsal of the ceremony.

Photoeye To Be Part of Menard Prison Entrance

Chester, Ill., June 17—(AP)—When the new $300,000 entrance gate to the Southern Illinois penitentiary at Menard is completed, it will be virtually impossible to carry concealed weapons into the prison.

On the new gate, construction of which Warden Joseph Montgomery announced might begin within a week, will be a photoeye or "gun detective." It is an electrical device which automatically inspects visitors as they enter and determines if they carry firearms.

The new entrance, a one-story structure surmounted by a guard tower, will be an annex to the administration building. It will be constructed in such a way as to make passage through it the only means of entering the prison.

Included among its improvements will be waiting rooms for prison visitors, rest rooms and a matron's room. The latter, a new addition to the prison facilities, will be used to inspect all women visitors.

Construction of the new gate is but one phase of the $860,000 building and improvement program at the penitentiary. There will be a cell house for the psychiatric division, a new water and filtration plant and a new building to house the prison chapel.

We now have reached the stage in the presidential campaign in which figuring on the result is done according to the electoral votes of the several states. It is possible for a candidate to receive a majority of the popular votes without receiving a majority in the electoral college, which, in fact, elects the president. The popular vote on the candidates doesn't elect anybody.

Here are the electoral votes of the forty-eight states: Alabama, 11; Arizona, 3; Arkansas, 9; California, 22; Colorado, 6; Connecticut, 8; Delaware, 3; Florida, 7; Georgia, 12; Idaho, 4; Illinois, 29; Indiana, 14; Iowa, 11; Kansas, 9; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 10; Maine, 5; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 17; Michigan, 19; Minnesota, 11; Mississippi, 9; Missouri, 15; Montana, 4; Nebraska, 7; Nevada, 3; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 16; New Mexico, 3; New York, 47; North Carolina, 13; North Dakota, 4; Ohio, 26; Oklahoma, 11; Oregon, 5; Pennsylvania, 36; Rhode Island, 4; South Carolina, 8; South Dakota, 4; Tennessee, 11; Texas, 23; Utah, 4; Vermont, 3; Virginia, 11; Washington, 8; West Virginia, 8; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3.

Although territories and possessions are given votes in political conventions, they have no electoral votes. Now how shall we put this picture puzzle together? Let us remember that a situation as it is today may be the reverse by August and back again by November. Perhaps the best way to draw the picture is to show what states Landon will have to carry in order to receive the necessary 266 electoral votes.

We shall begin with Maine and other New England states, because it has been currently reported in the west that New England is lost to President Roosevelt. That is a fair conclusion because even Mr. Hoover carried all except Massachusetts and Rhode Island, citadels of the wets in a campaign shot through with wet and dry controversies.

Although Governor Lehman appears to be running out on the democratic party, declaring that he will not be a candidate again, we shall permit the large electoral vote of the Empire state to stand aside to be used for juggling purposes. That leaves other middle Atlantic states to be considered singly. There is Pennsylvania, carried by Hoover; New Jersey, now in hands of republicans; Delaware, which has the reputation of being in hands of the Du Ponts, divided before, but united against Roosevelt; Maryland, now in hands of republicans and its leading democratic newspaper against the New Deal.

With troubled waters along the Atlantic seaboard, the New Dealers have placed their confidence in a combination of the solid south with the solid west. Checks to farmers have been counted on to keep the west solid for Roosevelt, although the AAA is a thing of the past.

Republicans of the west turned to a typical prairie state for a candidate who would be favored by the people of the west. Either he will sweep the plains on election day, or the west will join the solid south as the New Dealers hope.

Then there are the mountain states and Pacific states that will be in the grab bag.

Out of this count of noses, where must the Landon people go to round up 266 electoral votes?

They must carry Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Rhode Island, or all the New England states.

They must carry Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, and Maryland of the middle Atlantic group, all now republican or carried by Hoover.

They must carry Ohio, Michigan, Illinois of the middle states.

They must carry Iowa, Missouri, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas, Washington, Oregon, and California of the states west of the Mississippi river.

It may be noted that there is not included in the foregoing any of the Rocky Mountain states or any of the southwest group consisting of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona, and only Missouri of the so-called border states. Considerable bitterness against the New Deal resulted from treatment of the cattle men, but that has not been taken into account in the Rocky Mountain states, in this survey.

The foregoing collection of states will give Landon all except 3 of enough for election.

Now we come to New York. Carrying of that state would permit loss of half a dozen smaller states.

That is the job almost precisely as it is cut out for Landon people, and it is by no means beyond accomplishment with the wet and dry issue four years behind us.

However, the foregoing grouping of states should not be taken as a prediction. It merely is a setting forth of the facts and figures so readers may make their own predictions with some intelligence.

WHICH WAY?

It is a peculiar coincidence that just at a time when the national woman's party is moving its forces to obtain full equality for women under laws of the United States and of the states, we are being headed into a counter-movement to confer upon states the power to regulate wages of women.

Of course, we can not have it both ways. Motive power of the equal rights movement consists of a national woman's organization. Power behind the wage regulation movement is lodged in organizations mainly made up of men.

For some years the national woman's party has been undertaking to obtain equality for women. That, of course, means that no law shall be passed favoring women over men, favoring women on the theory that they are the weaker sex and need greater protection under the law.

Which way shall we go?

Prior to the opening of the republican national convention and the departure of President Roosevelt on his trip, accredited news services informed the public that the president had said his addresses would be historical and not political. Thereupon, the president proceeded to mingle political appeal and arraignment of class against class with his historical facts. Some day the press agencies will quote a president and the people will say, We know that is so, because the president said it. Once upon a time they spoke that way.

THE TWYMANITES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

"Those birds are following our kite," said Duncy. "It fills me with fright. I've never seen such birds before. I wonder what they are?"

"Supposing they decide to peck at us. That surely will raise heck. I hope they get tired out and can't travel very far."

"For goodness sake, forget those birds. You always think of real dumb words to say," replied brave Scouty. "Why, they are not harming us."

"Perhaps they like our company up here where there's not much to see. At least, they seem real friendly, so why do you fume and fuss?"

Then one bird circled round and round and made a very funny sound. The other said, "He thinks he's smart. He's entertaining you." "Just clap and he will do some more. Wait till you see how he can soar. That's just one of the clever things I taught him how to do."

The Tines clapped with all their might, and Goidy shouted, "What a sight! That funny bird turned on its back and flew round upside down."

"He's very clever, for a fact. As good as any circus act. He makes me think of Duncy, he is so much like a clown."

Just then brave Windy shouted, "Oh, we're dropping, now. Just look below. I see a very funny land, and that's where we are bound."

"If this fast dropping does not stop, we're going to take a sudden flop." The others, too, were frightened, as they started gazing round.

Down, down they went. And then one cried, "Here's where we end our lovely ride. We're just a few feet above the earth, as you can plainly see."

"Hang on," yelled Scouty. "We're all right, as long as we cling to our kite." The next thing that they knew, they landed in a funny tree. Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.

Modern science now adds realism to the Biblical story of the Three Wise Men and the sacred Star of the East. The new Rosicrucian Planetarium, being rushed to completion in San Jose, California, the fourth in the United States, will reveal astronomically the heavens as they were at the time of Christ. The apparatus being installed will project mechanically into a huge fifty-foot dome the positions of the stars, planets and constellations as they were more than twenty centuries ago.

Materialistic astronomers contend that the Biblical phenomenon was due to the rising of a heliacal

Wool can be strictly in the cool summer tradition, when it comes in soft, lightweight weaves—like the suits now showing at V. & O. Most of these sports woollens are in summer-weave homespun, with strikingly colored over-squares, clubs and other patterns. Pale backgrounds give the right summer touch. They certainly LOOK cool—and they ARE cool! Surprisingly comfortable, tremendously attractive. Single and double breasted models.

Dixon Woman Became Heir to Holland Count's Wealth

An interesting item taken from the issue of the Evening Telegraph of June 17, 1886, recounts an incident in which a Dixon woman became the sole heir to the entire estate of a Holland count. The woman was a sister of the late James Van Arnam of this city, who at one time owned the island east of the dam and will be remembered by the older residents of Dixon. The account is as follows:

Few cities in the land of its size and years has furnished to the world more remarkable characters than has Dixon. Dixon's citizens are constantly turning up somewhere in some shape to startle the world with something remarkable. Here is the latest:

We copy from a Chicago paper of today the following which comes out with bold headlines in words as follows:

"Cousins to a Count—By reason of this Mrs. Strong falls heir to quite a large estate in Holland." The Telegraph may add by way of preface that Mrs. Strong resided in Dixon at one time with her aunt, the late Mrs. E. B. Stiles. The latter was a sister of the late James M. Van Arnam, who was a brother to Mrs. Strong. We copy the balance of the romantic tale from a Chicago paper and give it for all it is worth:

"Mrs. James, the wife of Judge James of Council Bluffs, Iowa, bore the name of Van Arnam before she was married. Her daughter, evincing musical talents, was sent to Europe to pursue her studies. There, the daughter met the Count Joseph Van Arnam, of Arnam, Holland. In the course of their acquaintance it came out that her mother was a Van Arnam. The genealogical tree was shaken and they traced a kinship. Having no heirs he offered to bequeath all his vast estates and money to his relation provided she would take his name. This, she readily consented to do. Returning to this country the woman who is known at her residence, No. 49 Ruth street, as Mrs. Strong, sang an engagement with the Strakosch opera company. She sang in one of the city theaters about a week ago.

"Recently the Count died, and, true to his promise, left all his property to his American cousin. She has lately been notified of her good luck, and will sail for Holland in a few weeks to enter into possession of the bequest.

"Mrs. Strong, or Van Arnam, says the property includes money and large landed estates. Further than that she would not go, saying it was a matter of no interest to any one save herself and could not concern the public."

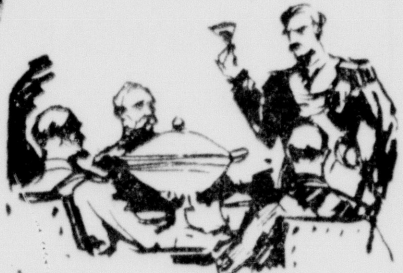

Total employment in the steel industry of this country, including salaried as well as wage-earning employees, is about 460,000, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute.

Strip coal mining on a large scale is reopening in the Moberly, Mo. district with one company launching a $1,000,000 project.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

DISGRACED FOR HIS VICTORY

AUSTRIA was fighting a losing war against Prussia and Italy, in 1866. Off the island of Lissa, in the Adriatic, Vice Admiral Wilhelm von Tegetthoff led his small, ancient fleet toward an Italian armada three times the size of his. The proud, ironclad "Re d'Italia" stood out from all Italy's ships, when Austria's wooden vessel, the "Ferdinand Rex," rammed head-on into her. The "Re d'Italia" sank, and so did many of her sister ships, while the rest fled for safety.

That night, Admiral Tegetthoff gave a victory dinner to his officers. He praised his men for their success, despite "scanty preparations begun too late." The Naval Office in Vienna heard of this and took it as an affront. When the admiral's voucher came in, the cost of his victory feast was deducted. He was removed from command and given a prolonged leave of absence.

She was baptized in the Lutheran faith at Cincinnati, Ohio, and was received into communicant membership with the Lutheran church through the rite of confirmation in Escanaba, Michigan. She came to Dixon in 1906. She sang in the choir and officiated at the organ for 10 years at Emmanuel Lutheran church.

In the year of 1910 she was united in holy wedlock to Charles Zopf. This union was blessed with one daughter, Ruth. Her first husband passed away on December 12, 1923.

Mrs. Hanneman took ill on the 19th of January of this year and was brought to the Dixon public hospital where she remained ten weeks. Her condition grew gradually worse. The last eleven weeks of her sojourn here upon earth were spent at her sister's home on First Avenue. Everything was done that could possibly be done to make her end as pleasant as possible under the existing conditions. be treated sympathetically. Forced contact with the feared object is undesirable. Inquiry, gently directed may reveal the origin of the fear. Subsequent discussion and assurance may make the child less timid. Infants who cannot be quizzed may be "unconditioned" by a process of gradual and slow contact with the feared object.

Thus, for example, a child who fears a dog or cat, if held in the arms of its parents, may be brought fairly close to the feared animal, without protest on its part. Repeated use of such approximation may in time encourage the child to venture close on its own initiative.

Franklin Grove Honored Mrs. F. E. Duncan, the newly elected president of the Franklin Grove Woman's club attended a very interesting and profitable board meeting of the District Woman's Club held in Polo Thursday.

Franklin Grove can boast a district chairman, Mrs. Harry Patterson having been elected as Credentialed chairman, for two years. We know Mrs. Patterson will carry on her work as credentialed chairman as efficiently and faithfully as she served the Franklin Grove Woman's Club as president for two years.

Mrs. Rahn and the delegates present reported on the state convention, held in Chicago in May. It was very interesting and entertaining to note what each one thought was the high light of the convention.

Mrs. Dewey, the district parliamentarian answered many questions pertaining to club work, handed in by the club president of the district. She also quoted the following rhyme:

Boil it until it simmers, Polish it until it glimmers, If you have anything to say, Don't take half a day Just say it!

Mrs. Dewey also emphasized the importance of Parliamentary laws within our own clubs. She asked that club presidents secure the pamphlet entitled "The Model Club Meeting" and study it. The meeting was considered one the best that has been held for sometime.

VAN MUNGO IS NOT POPULAR AT BROOKLYN

Blows Up, Losing the Buc Game; Mates Errorless

By SID FEDER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Those daffiness boys from Brooklyn, long-suffering under Van Lingle (Muttner) Mungo's reflections on their playing ability, can do a little finger-pointing on their own hook today, in the general direction of their ace.

For a long time it has been no secret that Van believes the Brooklyn beauties aren't giving him the support aimed his very select elbowing deserves.

A week ago, he walked out on the club. He came back Saturday after a series of "kiss-and-make-up" conferences with Brooklyn moguls, but when he walked into the clubhouse it was noticed there were no mates greeting him with open arms.

Got Support

Yesterday Van went to the hill for his first start since his mutiny, with the pounding Pirates from Pittsburgh as his opposition. The other Dodgers gave him perfect support.

After holding the Bucs hitless for five innings, Mr. Mungo, himself, exploded with a bang and was shelled from the mound under a five-run barrage that clinched a 9-2 win for the Pirates, behind Red Lucas' five-hit pitching. And, although Mungo wasn't on hand to see it, he had gone to the showers long before the Dodgers finished up the game without an error.

While the Dodgers were keeping a firm grip on the National League cellar, and the St. Louis Browns were doing as well in the American by losing out 9-4 to the Athletics, the leaders in the two leagues weren't doing so well at the head of the lists.

The St. Louis Cardinals' edge was clipped to 2½ games when they were kicked around 10-4 by the Boston Bees, while the second place Chicago Cubs were chalking up their 12th straight victory, 4-1 over the Phillies.

Yanks Trounced 8-4

In the American, the New York Yankees were trounced 8-4 by the Cleveland Indians, despite Lou Gehrig's two home runs, and the second place Boston Gold Sox were losing out to Sugar Cain and the Chicago White Sox, 4-2, in spite of Jimmy Foss' pair of circuit smashers. The Indians' win was largely the work of Bruce Campbell, who batted out three singles on his return to active duty after a spinal meningitis attack that nearly took his life.

Winding up the program, the New York Giants returned home from an unsuccessful road trip and turned back the Cincinnati Reds 5-2 behind Carl Hubbell's seven-hit pitching, while the Washington Senators outlasted the world's champion Tigers through ten innings, winning 9-8 on Carl Reynolds' homer with two on in the first extra frame.

TEUTON GIVEN ONLY 6 ROUNDS WITH BOMBER

Louis After Twenty-Eighth Victory in a Row

By ALAN GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 17.—(AP)—The house that Ruth helped build with his celebrated clouts for the circuit and which Joe Louis is helping support with his equally renowned clouts to the chin will echo to the roar of the fight crowd again tomorrow night.

Scene of many a knockout, in the ball field as well as in the ring, Yankee Stadium furnishes the background for the latest exploits of the 22-year-old Negro boy from Alabama whose rise to fistic heights has been equally as spectacular as rapid and even more lucrative, for all concerned, than the memorable flight of Babe Ruth to baseball fame.

There may be more background than spectators in some sections of the big Bronx ball yard but the ring-side rows, at $40 a head, will reflect the glitter of the golden days as Joe Louis keeps his latest fistic rendezvous, with Germany's Max Schmeling as the party of the second part.

Billed 15-Round Match

It's billed as a 15-round match, the winner to fight James J. Braddock this September for the heavyweight championship of the world, in the same arena, but five dollars will get you ten if you think Schmeling has a chance to last more than six rounds against the deadliest, most calculating puncher the ring has known since Jack Dempsey's prime.

Louis expects to make short work of the third ex-heavyweight champion he has fought there within a year and list Schmeling as the 28th victim in winning streak unbroken since the Detroit Negro turned professional in 1934.

Joe hasn't named his round but, having expressed the hope he "might break his New York record" it is reasonable to suspect he will try to apply the crusher in less than the 11 minutes and 50 seconds it required for him to knock out Max Baer last September.

After covering the last work-outs of Louis and listening to the Bomber's trainer, Jack Blackburn, describe his charge's improvement, fight experts leaned to the view Joe will vary his usual methods by trying for a first-round knockout.

Schmeling Aides Calm

This failed to disturb the outward evidence of calm in Schmeling's camp, however. Max's followers, in fact, think his chances will be better in an early slugfest than if he is subjected to more carefully directed sharpshooting.

Despite a few million words of ballyhoo, the fight has failed in advance to stir any frenzied debate or arouse particular emotional appeal. The advance sale has only this week passed the $500,000 mark, whereas it was originally aimed at $1,000,000, but there is every reason to believe it will be a highly artistic success, from the standpoint of promotion as well as what Louis will do to Schmeling in the main event.

Promoter Mike Jacobs to encourage the faithful announced a cut in ticket prices today. He marked down the $11.50 pasteboards to $7.75 and forecast the possibility of further reductions if the remaining supply doesn't move fast enough.

Lawson Little In Davenport Trials

Davenport, Ia., June 17.—(AP)—Many of the nation's leading golfers including Lawson Little, Jr., former ruler of the amateurs, blazed away over the Davenport Country club course today in practice rounds for the start of the Western open meet Friday.

Early arrivals included many of the players who participated in the Illinois open at Decatur Monday and Tuesday. Zell Eaton of Oklahoma City, winner of the Illinois meet, planned a practice session today.

During a lunar eclipse, the temperature of the moon was found to have dropped from 194 degrees above to 152 degrees below zero, within a few minutes.

waters of the new $100,000 Birdland pool here today in tuneups for the senior men's national A. A. U. championships Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

For most of the more than 100 entries the meet will serve as a final test before they plunge into competition for places on the United States Olympic team which will be decided at Providence, R. I., on this summer, splashed through the July 10.

Doubles Warfare Begins At River Forest Net Club

Chicago, June 17.—(AP)—Doubles warfare opens on the national day courts tennis championship front at the River Forest tennis club today.

Frankie Parker, victorious in three matches and a heavy favorite for the singles title, is paired with J. Gilbert Hall of West Orange, N. J., and the combination is seeded No. 1. Parker is seeded at the top of the singles entries while Hall, who was seeded second, was eliminated from singles play yesterday by Dix Bennett of the University of Southern California.

Parker won his third round match by bearing down in the last set against Paul Newton, University of California, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4.

Mullen Controls Chicago Stadium Ring Promotion

Chicago, June 17.—(AP)—A shakeup by the Chicago Stadium board of directors gave James C. Mullen complete charge today of all boxing promotion at the huge sports arena.

Mullen was instructed yesterday to negotiate for outstanding matches and will be given strong financial backing in an attempt to bring talent here. He has been connected with the sport for 20 years as a promoter and matchmaker.

The board released Nate Lewis with the stadium since 1929. He had served as co-matchmaker with Mullen.

The largest Roman Catholic church is St. Peter's, in Rome. The seating capacity can hardly be estimated, as much of the edifice consists of corridors and halls. The building covers four acres of ground.

To maintain health, about 2000 cubic feet of air is required every hour.

Second Boxing Card at Airport Friday Evening

The second boxing card of the summer will be held at 8:30 P. M. Friday in the airport hangar. Promoter Ed Hooker announced this morning.

On this week's card are two very strong bouts, one a five-rounder between Bernard Stunkle of Steward at 126 lbs. and Clark Lewis, flashy Peoria Negro. These boys have battled twice before, each having won a bout. John Balmer of Peoria also 126 lbs. will clash with Ed Dempsey of Moline. These boys rate high in northern Illinois.

The card is composed of seven bouts, one fight yet to be arranged. The line-up for Friday's card is as follows: Lester Phillips, Dixon versus Joe Smith, East Moline, 147 lbs.; Roy Ackerdig, Rock Falls vs. Tom Swartz, Peoria at 160 lbs.; Mickey Everhart, Sterling vs. Jim Beets, Peoria at 160 lbs.; Walt Warfield, Peoria, vs. Pete Hantz, East Moline, 147 lbs.; Bernard Stunkle vs. Clark Lewis, and John Balmer vs. Ed Dempsey.

'JUNK PILES' TO BE ORDERED OFF STATE HIGHWAYS

State Police to Soon Start Campaign to Eliminate Them

Springfield, Ill., June 17.—(AP)—Private garages throughout Illinois will be the official testing points for the "safe automobile" safety campaign to be started soon by the state police, Police Chief Walter Williams announced.

The principal aim of the campaign will be to eliminate machines with mechanical defects rendering them unsafe for driving. Williams declared. Private garages will be authorized to make inspection tests, a maximum fee of 75 cents being allowed for the inspection, he said.

W. C. Giessler of the bureau of machinery, division of highways, who has been in charge of preparations, said arrangements were nearly ready for action, and that the campaigns would begin in the near future.

To Get Rid of "Junk."

Numerous municipalities, including Chicago, also are planning "safe auto" campaigns similar to that of the state, he said. The campaign is expected slowly to rid the highways of "junk piles" so decrepit as to be a menace to other machines and pedestrians.

More than 200 garages have applied for authorization as testing points. These will be inspected by state officials before being accepted as official inspection stations.

When arrangements are complete, a state policeman who suspects an auto of being faulty will ask the driver to have it inspected at the nearest official point. Chief Williams said in explanation of campaign enforcement. Then, if the auto fails to pass inspection, it will be ruled off the highways until repaired and judged safe, he declared.

Waitresses rarely stay long enough in the hotel business to learn it properly and thus are unlikely to replace men in the dining-room service, according to most hotel managers.

WALTON TEAM BEATS ELDENA BY 6-2 COUNT

Walton beat the Eldena baseball team on the Walton grounds by a score of 6 to 2.

H. Giessler started for Eldena and was combed for four runs before a man was out and Ikens came to the rescue. Four hits and two errors were responsible for the runs. Ikens held Walton to five hits and struck out twelve in the eight innings he pitched. Walton scored two runs in the fifth inning on a walk and two hits. Eldena scored in the seventh and eighth inning. Ikens held Cy Brechon, Walton's ambitious slugger well in check by striking Mr. Brechon out every time up, much to his disgust.

Cosgrove pitched a good game for Walton as he had the Eldena boys popping up and hitting to the infield. Only three Eldena players struck out but hit the ball where it was taken for the needed outs.

Next Sunday, June 21st Eldena meets the Dixon Panthers on the Panthers diamond at Reynolds field. In the previous meeting between the Panthers and Eldena, the Panthers won 4 to 3 at Eldena.

Chart Posted at Courts Tonight; Two More Entries

Two more entries boosted the total number competing in the city tennis tournament to 30 Tuesday afternoon. The new entrants were Clifford Flanagan and Frank Dashbach.

Provided two more do not enter the meet today, filling in a complete bracket of 32 players, the winner of the Flanagan-Dashbach match in the first round will draw a bye into the third round.

A chart has been prepared by Ted Wallin and Don Hilliker of the courts committee and it will be posted tonight at the Dixon high school courts. Work of resurfacing the courts is being completed today and the park board announced yesterday the courts will be in shape for tournament competition tomorrow morning.

Motorist Chopped Out of Wreckage

Chicago, June 16—(AP)—Firemen removed a capsize tractor and trailer and chopped away part of a crushed coupe today to extricate Wesley Parr, 35, of Decatur, Ill., uninjured from his automobile.

Parr told the police he was driving west on 24th Street when as he reached State street, a truck driven by Roy Meyer, 33, of Indianapolis, swerved to avoid colliding with another truck, then toppled over on his car.
Parr was imprisoned in the wreckage for half an hour.

FARLEY COMING TO ILLINOIS IN PEACE ATTEMPT

Will Bear Down in Gov.
Horner and Cook Co.
Organizations

Springfield, Ill., June 17—(AP)— Daniel Sullivan, administrative auditor and a leader of Governor Horner's campaign forces, today confirmed a state house report that Postmaster General James A. Farley had signified he would come to Illinois to attempt to settle the quarrel between the governor and Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago.

Sullivan said the state administration had been advised Farley
the national Democratic chairman, would come west almost immediately after the national convention at Philadelphia next week.
Advice from the party's national chief that he was going to step into the state Democratic fight which has threatened to split the party in the November elections, was received verbally, it was understood. The national administration was neutral in the Democratic primary scrap.

Could Cut Patronage
State house observers pointed out the strongest weapon at the postmaster's disposal would be a threat to cut off patronage to the faction which would not make a wholehearted effort to present a harmonious front.

Sullivan also said, in answer to a question, that Farley's plan to come here was communicated to the Horner forces before the nomination of Col. Frank Knox of Chicago as the Republican candidate for vice president.

Numerous officials at the capitol said, however, that Knox's nomination had probably clinched Farley's decision since the observers here said they considered the selection of the Chicagoan strengthened the Republican party in Illinois.

It was not known whether Farley had delayed his action until after the national convention because of the change the Illinois Democratic leaders might make peace, themselves, in Philadelphia.
It will be the first meeting of the leaders of the Cook county and Horner factions since the state convention when Chicagoans boomed the governor and the organization meeting of the Democratic central committee when downstate bailed the Chicago controlled meeting.

SEES BEST CONVENTIONS

Philadelphia, June 17—(AP)—
Postmaster General James A. Farley, Democratic national chairman, came to Philadelphia today, looking forward to "the best Democratic convention ever."

Farley went immediately to committee headquarters to take inventory of preparations for the convention, which will open on Tuesday.

"It's going to be the best Democratic convention ever and I am looking forward to it with extreme pleasure," he said.

Changes have been made since the 400-page official souvenir program was printed and bound. Most important was the postponement of President Roosevelt's renomination to Friday night, June 26.
Originally it was planned for Thursday. Renomination of Vice President Garner may go over until Saturday. Both candidates will be notified formally at Franklin Field Saturday night, June 27.

SEN. COPELAND NOT TO ATTEND DEMS' MEETING

Instead New York Democrat Will Go To Doctors' Meet

Washington, June 17—(AP)— Senator Copeland (D-NY) said he intended to "take a walk to the National Medical Society convention" at Cleveland while the Democratic national convention, to which he was elected a delegate, is meeting in Philadelphia next week.

"I'm going to the medical society convention because I think I'll have a better time and do more good there," he said in an interview. "Therefore I'm not going to take a walk to the national Democratic convention, but I'm going to walk the other way, to the medical society meeting."

Copeland said he had not talked with former Governor Alfred E.
Smith of New York about any joint move to walk out of the Democratic meeting. According to reports from New York, Smith has made no train reservation for the trip to Philadelphia, although he was elected a delegate at the April primaries.

Not in Inner Circle.
"I haven't seen Al in months," Copeland said. "I don't know anything about what he's doing except what's in the papers."

Copeland has several times described himself on the senate floor as not belonging to the inner circle of leaders in the Roosevelt administration. While a candidate for re-election two years ago he called Postmaster General James A. Farley, chief patronage dispenser in the Roosevelt administration, a "fair weather admiral" when aroused by a published report the Roosevelt Democrats were weighing a plan to bring about his removal from the senate by denying him re-nomination.

An Exclusive NEA Service-Evening Telegraph Feature from Her Family's Album --- A Camera Sketch of Peggy Landon's Childhood

CAPTIVATING KANSAS CO-ED EMERGES AS POTENTIAL WHITE HOUSE PRINCESS

The alert curiosity of infant Peggy Ann Landon foreshadows the young woman who 16 years later was to captivate Republican convention throngs.

Nearly sixteen years ago, young Peggy Ann Landon demonstrated interest in the social activities that will fall to her lot should her father, Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas, be elected President. The death of her mother, Margaret Fleming Landon, had left her upbringing to him, and he made her his pal. These pictures from the Landon family album portray her in typical childhood poses, playing with her tea set (left) and on daddy's knee.

Humorous, upturned lines of the mouth and intelligent dark eyes bespeak the pleasant, carefree childhood of Peggy Landon, pictured at age six.

The inexpensive dress that nine-year-old Peggy Landon wears for the important event of having her picture taken testifies to the simplicity in which she was reared despite the affluence of her father and grandfather, both already well established oil operators at that time.

Nineteen—and the darling of the Republican convention—finds Peggy Ann Landon, University of Kansas co-ed, cast as potential White House "princess".

represents much time and work on the part of that organization whose members though few in number, possess efficiency, courage and patriotism to a marked degree and the community is very grateful to them for the gift. Rev. Cox in a stirring thought-inspiring address declared the rights of American citizens to have good free schools constituted for us by our forefathers and depicted the influence both church and school in the community. Co. Supt. L. W. Miller delivered the dedication speech, delivered with much feeling, traced the first school held in a log house near here, 100 years ago, through the old academy, down to our present fine modern building, always with the keen desire for education on the part of this community. A painting of the old academy by Mrs. A. F. Jeanblanc displayed on an easel on the stage was an interesting illustration to Superintendent Miller's historical data. His well chosen words of dedication were as impressive as a beautiful prophetic poem. Other numbers on this program were also well received and the evening closed with a dance, the personnel of the orchestra being Mrs. C. A. Ulrich, C. W. Robinson, Avon Cox, Sherman L.
